Live Through This Mindi Scott

In this unforgettable powerhouse of a novel, Mindi Scott offers an absorbing, layered glimpse into the life of an everygirl living a nightmare that no one would suspect.

Live Through This — Mindi Scott

Live Through This is a mature novel that handles the topic of sexual abuse as best as a book can. I didn't feel as connected with the characters as I would have liked, and the ending didn't feel like quite enough, but it is still a good book.

Mindi Scott's Live Through This (2012) is the story of a teenage girl, Coley, who is discovering sexuality on her own terms. When she, and her crush Reece, finally start to date, years of guilt about being repeatedly sexually assaulted by her older brother begin to unravel and Coley must figure out how to deal with these emotions, and to share the burden of her experience with the people she cares about.

Book Review: Live Through This | Colorado Coalition ...

Live Through This has been on my TBR for a while now... since before it was released actually. I didn't hesitate when I seen this at the library, I knew I had to pick it up and read it straight away. Let's start with the characters before anything. Coley, the main character, besides having an awesome name was great.
