My Son's Story

My Sons Story Nadine Gordimer

My Son's Story is the ninth novel by South African novelist Nadine Gordimer. It was written towards the end of the State of Emergency and first published in 1990. The very next year, Gordimer was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature , and the Swedish Academy explicitly cited My Son's Story in their press release, calling it "ingenious and revealing and at the same time enthralling".

My Son's Story - Wikipedia

This book is written by the Nobel prize winner Nadine Gordimer and this book shows us why she deserved it. Wonderfully written, this book gives a human and tactful account of human daily life and challenges during the apartheid time in South Africa. Students should read it at school to have a direct, sincere and even account of that time.
